ARRIVAL OF THE OFFICERS OF THE PRIVATEER HORNET.

Father Hyacinthe's Letter to the Boston Clergymen.

Rumors of Another Cuban Expedition.

Condition of General Wool.

The New Hampshire Constabulary Law.

The Erie Railroad Strike.

The Hell-Gate Scare Disposed of.

NEW YORK, November 9.

Captain Harris, late commander of the steamer Lillian, which had Coeuria's expedition on board, arrived in New York yesterday from Nassau, where the vessel was seized.

The officers of the privateer Hornet were brought to Brooklyn yesterday in charge of Marshal Foote of North Carolina, and turned over to Marshal Dulles, who held them in ten thousand dollars each to answer before the U. S. Circuit Court.

The following is Father Hyacinthe's letter to the Boston clergymen:

"I am very sensible of the high honor paid me in the greeting from the clergy of your city. I am touched by your expressions of Christian sympathy and affection. I am a Catholic and hope to remain one. I have not broken with the church, but its abuses. I recognize true Christians in all Protestant bodies, for I believe that the true church, embracing all who hold Christ as their head, is far greater than any earthly organization. My purpose in coming to America is to escape from excitement and rest a little. I shall soon return to Europe but I hope again to visit this country. I shall visit Boston in November, if possible, and should then be glad to see those whom you represent, to explain more fully my position. The future is dark and uncertain, but I shall obey my conscience to the end. Greet, in my name, with Christian salutation, those in whose name you greet me."

The Times says that intelligence was received at a late hour last night, from a reliable source, of another Cuban expedition being now in progress in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. It also learns that one or two fine steamers have been purchased by parties who are unknown, and will, at an early date, if not stopped, attempt to pursue a course similar to that marked out for the steamer Cuba.

General Gioeouria, commander of the Ryan-Lillian Cuba expedition, is expected to arrive here to-day, having been released from the custody of the Nassau British officials.

The World's special of the 5th, from Concord, New York, 9th, states that the constabulary law is to be submitted to the popular vote to-morrow. The religious element favors it, and only one newspaper, in the State favors it. The vote will be light. The cities will go strong against the law, but if the country turns out, it will be carried, and, according to the provision made by the last Legislature, put into immediate effect.

A Post special from Port Jervis says: Gould and Rucker are here, and are not employing any of the old brakemen. The yards are full of freight, and but little is going out. It is said that the Delaware division is awaiting word from the Eastern division, and will also stop work. Everything is being conducted quietly. The two hundred men who arrived from Jersey City have mostly returned, not seeming to like the aspect of affairs.

NEW YORK, November 8.

The sunken cans of nitro-glycerine at Hell-Gate rocks were raised this morning. There was a fault in the preparation of the compound, and it would not explode. Mons. Maillefort says there was too much dynamite and silicate in it.

Early this morning nearly five hundred Harlem fishermen lined the piers of East river, awaiting the explosion, with the purpose of making an immense haul of the fish which it was supposed would be killed by the explosion.

Two Parsee merchants, from Bombay, are at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. They have spent a fortnight in New England, examining the cotton and woolen mills. They will make a tour to the South, with a special reference to cotton growing, which branch of industry is receiving a large share of attention in India. They are fine looking and intelligent, and dress in European costume, except the cap. They and others are aiding in breaking down caste in India, and introducing European customs.

TEOR, N. Y., November 9.

General Wool was not quite as comfortable last night as he had been during the preceding forty-eight hours. He takes scarcely any nourishment, and is very weak.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 8.

A telegram to Secretary Fish, from Mr. Burlingame, received within a few days, says that he (Burlingame) had just received official confirmation from the Chinese Government, of all that he has done in treating with the United States and other governments.

Murderer Lynched in Kentucky.

Special to the Cincinnati Gazette.

LEXINGTON, November 8.

Frank Searcy killed Elise Burgess, in Richmond, November 1st. On the next Friday night a party of men went to Searcy's house to lynch him, but he fought them and it is said killed one and wounded others. On Saturday Searcy was lodged in jail in Richmond, and this morning he died a body of men took him from the jail and hung him, attaching to his body a placard threatening death to any one who would molest his body before seven o'clock.

Searcy has killed four or five men and had a bad character.

THE PRIZE FIGHT.

McCooe Backs Down.

From the Cincinnati Gazette, 9th.

The prize fight is off, owing solely to the offensiveness of the McCooe party. Thorngren has arrived from St. Louis, but McCooe refuses to allow him to have any voice in the matter. He says that no one shall hold the stakes but a resident and property-holder in St. Louis. A warm meeting of the representatives of both sides was held at George Atkinson's saloon last night. Allen's friends proposed that the money should be hung on a pole in the center of the ring, to be taken by the best man at the close of the fight. McCooe's friends said "no."

Allen's friends proposed that the referee should hold the stakes and deliver them to the man in whose favor he decided the fight. McCooe's friends said "no." Allen's friends proposed that the men should fight for the money. McCooe's friends said "no, it would not pay." James Corey then mounted the counter, and said that he had understood that both men were willing to fight for ten dollars. He was willing to put up $500 out of his own pocket for them to fight for, rather than that the fight should not come off. But nothing would satisfy the McCooe party, and the conclusion seems inevitable that they are determined to spoil the match, because they feel certain that their man would be whipped if he dared to face Allen in the ring.

ON an outrage upon the rights of colored citizens has occurred in Memphis. Two negroes were in the third hour of a praying match—the bets being on time and fervency—when a sinful and unscrupulous policeman carried them off to jail for disorderly conduct.
